

ITEMS WHICH CANNOT BE COLLECTED AT THE CURBSIDE

WHERE DO I DROP THEM OFF?

ELECTRONICS

Lunenburg Regional Community Recycling Centre at 908 Mullock Road, Whynott's Settlement or any Electronic Products Recycling Association depot, free of charge.

Call (902) 543-2991 for information about accepted items, or visit www.recycleMYelectronic.ca/ns.

PROPANE TANKS & AEROSOL CANS

Residents may drop off propane tanks and aerosol cans at the Lunenburg Regional Community Recycling Centre at 908 Mullock Road in Whynott's Settlement, free of charge.

FREEZERS, FRIDGES, AIR CONDITIONERS & DE-HUMIDIFIERS

Lunenburg Regional Community Recycling Centre at 908 Mullock Road, Whynott's Settlement, free of charge.

Gases are drained from the appliances on-site, for free.

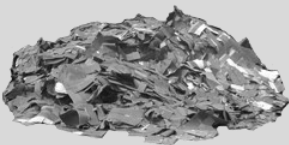

TIRES

Any tire retailer. Tires accepted: car, truck, motorcycle, camper and trailer. Four tires can be accepted at a time, free of charge. Tires must be off the rim and free of mud.

Visit <http://divertns.ca/recycling/what-goes-where/tires> or call 1-877-313-7732.

ASPHALT SHINGLES

Lunenburg Regional Community Recycling Centre at 908 Mullock Road, Whynott's Settlement; a tipping fee is charged.

Shingles may also be dropped off at any regulated construction and demolition waste disposal site in Nova Scotia. Call (902) 543-2991 for more information.

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTES

Residential hazardous wastes: Lunenburg Regional Community Recycling Centre at 908 Mullock Road, Whynott's Settlement, free of charge. Call (902) 543-2991 for more information.

Deliver explosives, fireworks and ammunition to the RCMP; disposal is free. Call your local RCMP detachment at (902) 527-5555 or (902) 634-8674.

WET PAINT

Any Enviro Depot or the Lunenburg Regional Community Recycling Centre at 908 Mullock Road, Whynott's Settlement.

LUNENBURG REGIONAL Community Recycling Centre
TURNING OUR RESOURCES AROUND
www.communityrecycling.ca